THE BOOK OF PHILIPPIANS MEN'S BIBLE STUDY

1st & 3rd TUESDAYS 6:30 p.m.

Are you feeling stretched, too busy, or searching for deeper purpose? Join other men from our church for a verse-by-verse journey through the Apostle Paul's letter to a group of Christians known as the "Philippians."

Written from a prison cell, Philippians does not foster a "woe is me" mindset and in spite of the circumstances, is not a letter of despair. It is a masterclass in relentless joy, unshakable peace, and true contentment in Christ. So come on in, grab a cup of coffee, and lock arms with your brothers as we learn what it means to be humble and also victorious as we find joy in the journey...together.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT?

- ‡ Real Conversation: Honest discussions about everyday life, work, family, and following Jesus, both personally and together.
- ‡ Practical Truths: Discover how to trade anxiety for God's peace with prayer and right thinking; See the example of Christ to put others first; Find that real joy is rooted in Jesus, not our feelings; Understand how to be satisfied no matter what we face in life.
- ‡ Brotherhood: Building strong, Christ-centered friendships you can count on and be accountable to make your faith real, not just an outward show. Pastor Rob Renberg will be teaching, along with others from time to time.

WHY SHOULD I COME?

Whether you know your Bible inside and out or you are opening it for the first time, you belong here. We start at the beginning of the letter and work our way through the entire book, doing some personal work before each class to prepare to discuss together what we encounter. Miss a session? Jump right back in for the next one. Each week's study is worth being at and ready for, but life happens so you can just come even if you haven't prepared. C'mon! Show up!
