Here is the recent news from Prison Mission Association's monthly Newsletter that goes out all over the United States and foreign countries as well.

"PMA is blessed to see God working in local churches that use our lessons to reach out to their local jails and prisons. Here is an update from Tamara Reese, who is doing a great job taking over for Carolyn Raymond who served for many years in this ministry heading up this prison outreach ministry begun in 1992 at Anchor Point Bible Church in Norton Shores, MI."

"I would like to acknowledge the dedication and hard work of our 6 'Lesson Graders' at APBC who faithfully support the Bible Correspondence ministry. Their contributions are essential to our success. I am grateful for their expert guidance and patience. Our current participation numbers include 87 student inmates in the Bible Correspondence Fellowship lessons and 10 student inmates in the Les Feldick Bible lessons as well. Although PMA is a nationwide organization, Michigan stands out with over 1400 student inmates registered in our database. I am currently updating 10-20 inmates a week (those who've stopped responding have been paroled or discharged).

We're also working with inmate students in Florida, California, Arizona, North Carolina, and Ohio who have been with our prison outreach ministry at Anchor Point Bible Church for some time. We are thrilled to say that we serve student inmates at ALL 26 correctional facilities in Michigan!"

"We [PMA] praise God for this expanding outreach and pray that more churches will be able to catch the vision of reaching those who need to hear about the Gospel of the Grace of God behind bars."
